

Second Saturday in Natomas

9/13/25 Public Art Crawl

Second Saturday in Natomas invites you to check out our public art, grab a bite to eat at one of our local eateries, and enjoy a picnic at one of our beautiful parks.

Post photos with #SecondSaturdayInNatomas to social media and show us how you enjoyed the day. Our favorite will win a prize!

Public ART in Natomas!

Scan the QR or visit:

<https://www.cityofsacramento.gov/ccs/oac/public-art>

Peek-A-Boo, Larry Meeks, 2003, North Natomas Regional Park

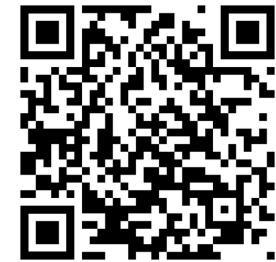

Did you know Natomas has over 40 art pieces (3-D sculptures and murals) represented in the City of Sacramento's new public art GIS web application? It is designed to help you locate and learn more about the great public art available throughout the city. Check out the filters and search functions to locate specific art in District 1 (North Natomas) and District 3 (South Natomas).

Did you know Natomas has over 50 parks represented in the City of Sacramento's extensive parks and recreation system? With so many neighborhood parks, community parks, open space areas, and shared-use paths, there is something for everyone to enjoy in Natomas!

Granary, Mark Abildgaard, 2016, Dogwood Park

Public PARKS in Natomas!

Scan the QR or visit:

<https://www.cityofsacramento.gov/ypce/parks>

